

EXTRA SPECIAL!

$7.00 and $8.00 White Swiss Dresses trimmed with Irish and val laces, some we picked up at half price and we give them to you the same way. All new and latest styles. A real bargain at $3.98.

50c and 65c Fancy Kimonas, made of fine Lawn and in the latest styles. Yours while they last at 39c.

Remember, our entire stock of Summer Goods at great sacrifice to close out. We must clean out for our immense Fall Stock and if there is anything you can use, it is yours at a Big Saving.

Come and look through our stock.

The Earnest Co.

PALATKA, FLA.

218-220-222-224 Lemon Street.

Merryday Block.

The Florida Journal

Effective early in September, we shall discontinue sending the Citizen to our subscribers, and in its stead will send our own paper, The Florida Journal. It will contain twice as much matter as the Citizen. The subscription price will be $1.00 per year, which must be paid in advance. All those now receiving the Citizen will receive the Journal to fill out their subscriptions to the Citizen.

Every friend of temperance needs this paper to keep posted on what is being done against the saloon. You especially need it during the campaign. Will you not help in its circulation? We ought to have 25,000 subscribers during this campaign. Will you not subscribe for it for somebody else, since you are already getting it? Or, better still, will you not get up a club of ten or more subscribers and send the names to us?

For 10 subscribers, at $1.00 each, we will send absolutely free a 31-piece dinner set, decorated in Old English Blue.

For 15 subscribers, at $1.00 each, we will send a 45-piece set of the same ware. You pay freight on the dishes.

For 35c each, we will send the paper from the time the subscription is received until Jan. 1, 1911.

Send all orders to
C. L. COLLINS,
Supt. Fla. Anti-Spoil League,
Box 755,
Jacksonville, Fla.

Notice of Application for Tax Deed Under Section 8 of Chapter 208, Laws of Florida.

Notice is hereby given that R. W. Adams, purchaser of tax certificate No. 10, dated the 6th day of June, 1908, has filed said certificate in his office, and has made application for tax deed to issue thereon, with law, said certificate, and the following described property situated in Putnam county, Florida, to-wit: W. 1/2 of sec. 10, T. 10 N., R. 10 E., S. 10, containing 20 acres.

The said land being assessed at the date of the issuance of such certificate in the name of West Tocco Turpentine Co.

Unless said certificate shall be redeemed according to law, tax deed will issue thereon on the 9th day of October, A. D. 1910. Witness my official signature and seal this 9th day of September, A. D. 1910.

(Seal)
Clerk Circuit Court Putnam Co., Fla.
By Henry Hutchinson, Jr., D. C.

Notice to Contractors.

The Board of Trustees for Putnam County Bonds will receive sealed bids for the construction of five miles of hard surfaced roads until Friday, Sept. 30th, 1910, and on that day, at 10 a. m., will publicly open and read same at the office of the Board, No. 722 River street, Palatka, Fla.

The work contemplated commences at a point in the Public Road about one half mile East of Ft. Pierce, Fla., and extends Westwardly through Grandin, Fla., to Putnam Hall, Fla., and towards Melrose, Fla.

Those interested will obtain all necessary information concerning the project named upon application to R. F. Ensey, County Engineer, Palatka, Fla.

STEWART WORDEN,
Secretary.

Stops cramps in two minutes; toothache, or pain of brain or skull in five minutes; heartburn, one hour; muscle ache, two hours; sore throat, twelve hours—Dr. Thomas Electric Oil, twelve arch over pain.

5 or 6 doses "666" will cure any case of Chills and Fever. Price 25c. 44-4m
WANTED—Students for Shortland and Telegraphy by experienced instructor. Rare opportunity for bright students.—Mrs. W. U. Tel. Co. Palatka.

The Palatka News and Advertiser.

City Happenings and Personal Mention.

R. R. Brakeman is spending the day in Jacksonville.

"A good many people are 'getting the Orpheum habit' lately.

Mrs. Wm. Tunnage left on Wednesday for an extended visit in Chicago.

Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Rowton leave today for an extended visit in New York.

Mrs. Daisy Pickren and children are visiting Mrs. Ida Kooker in Jacksonville.

Mrs. E. E. Dodge has returned from an extended visit with relatives in Boston, Mass.

Mr. and Mrs. H. F. Leeks have returned from a visit to their old home in Saginaw, Mich.

F. E. Reeder the well-known Welaka druggist was a business visitor in the city yesterday.

Mr. and Mrs. R. J. Hancock returned on Sunday from a stay of several weeks at Pablo Beach.

Mrs. J. H. Houghton and Miss Dorothy Houghton returned Tuesday from an extended visit in Fredonia, N. Y.

Miss Mabel Holcomb returned home on Monday from a two weeks visit with Miss Leda Houston at Mikesville.

Judge E. E. Haskell and Mr. H. H. Kent left last Friday for their annual outing at Center Conway, N. H.

Elmer Collins has gone to Charleston, S. C. to take charge of the engine for Guild & Co., the contractors.

Mrs. Ed. Crutchfield and children of St. Augustine, are visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. G. Phillips.

Carlos Canova, who has been seriously ill with typhoid fever, is now said to be making steady recovery.

Miss Annie Reed, who has been visiting in Canada for the past several months, returned home last Saturday.

J. A. Robertson and son, Jerry, among the prominent people of the Melrose section, were visitors in the city yesterday.

Edward North has gone into the mercantile business at Rice Creek, and is very much encouraged with his new venture.

I. D. Sims, one of the new settlers at the growing St. Johns Park colony on Lake Crescent, was a business visitor in Palatka Wednesday.

Mr. and Mrs. F. J. Fearnside and Mr. Frank Fearnside left last Saturday for New York and the White Mountains for an absence of over a month.

Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Burt and children of Savannah, are visiting their old home on the Hecla. Mr. Burt's many friends are all pleased to see him.

B. F. Tillingshast and Chas. Curtiss of Crescent City, among the prominent visitors from the little orange growing city in Palatka on Wednesday.

C. C. Slade an old and well known resident of the peninsula end of the county now residing at Crescent City, was a visitor in Palatka on Wednesday.

Hastings needed another saloon to emphasize its prosperity, and the St. Johns county commissioners at a meeting on Tuesday authorized its establishment.

The long warehouse of the A. C. C. on the river front and which collapsed last Friday, will be rebuilt. The stored merchandise has been taken out with little loss.

F. J. Fearnside, who is now in New York, sends word that the store that he is buying the largest and finest stock of fall goods ever shipped to this section of the state.

I. L. Ellwood of DeKalb, Ill., who for many years has maintained a fine winter home in Palatka, is said to be very low with paralysis. Mrs. Ellwood died only a few weeks ago.

Mrs. H. A. Ford and the children were in the city over Tuesday and Wednesday, guests of Mrs. H. A. Gray. Mrs. Ford was on her way home from an extended visit in Boston.

Dr. and Mrs. H. R. Estes and Miss Clyde Estes left on Wednesday evening for Searcy, Arkansas. They will also visit some at points in Tennessee and expect to be absent some five or six weeks.

The one thing that stands in the way of Palatka becoming a great cigar manufacturing center, is the lack of buildings in which to house the factories—and house them NOW. The opportunity will have passed next week.

Attorney Henry Strunk who spent last week in attendance upon the meetings of the American Bar Association in Chattanooga, went from there to Cincinnati, thence to his old home in Connecticut where he will take a vacation before returning to Palatka.

Hon. and Mrs. McQueen Chaires of Old Town, Lafayette Co., arrived in the city this week, and are guests of Mr. and Mrs. R. F. Ensey. Mr. Chaires, who is a member of the Legislature from Lafayette county, has returned home.

The Havana cigar factory of Corral, Wodiska & Co., which but recently moved here from Tampa, is now working over 60 hands and getting daily additions to its force. The men all seemed pleased with Palatka as a place of residence.

W. D. Judy who has been quite ill at his home on Dodge street for the past two weeks, has improved very much and was able to sit up some on Wednesday. His many friends will be pleased to hear of this and trust that his complete recovery may be speedy.

The Palatka high and graded school will open for the fall term on Monday, the 26th inst., under Principal Stephens. And in the interests of the "kids" and teachers alike, the News trusts that there may be a change for the better in the weather before that much dreaded day.

There was a brilliant wedding ceremony at the residence of Mrs. F. M. Dorr at Federal Point, Wednesday afternoon, the contracting parties being Miss Julia Anne Hart, daughter of Mrs. Mary E. Evans, and Mr. Randolph Emerson Athey. There was a number of relatives and friends present, and many valuable presents were received by the happy couple. The bride is well known and highly esteemed in Palatka, where formerly she resided for some years.

Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Glass and two children of Gainesville, spent Sunday and Monday with Judge and Mrs. M. I. Cox.

D. W. Johnson, merchant at Johnson station and one of the county's most prominent citizens, was a visitor in the city last Saturday.

Arthur Davis, a promising young man of Satsuma Heights, has begun an apprenticeship at the Stanton Foundry and Machine shop.

Dr. Rosenberg has returned from a visit to his daughter, Mrs. D. C. Voeit, in Savannah. Mrs. Rosenberg will remain a little longer to enjoy the society of her little grand daughter, who recently arrived in the Vorus home.

Mr. and Mrs. A. T. Jones are rejoicing over the birth of a little son at their home last Sunday. But they are not the only one who are rejoicing, as the grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. L. C. Canova, are doing some of it also.

E. T. Lancaster drew the $3 prize at M. S. Brown's clock auctioning last Tuesday night and a big crowd saw him do it. Next Tuesday night—the last of the series—there will be $10 in prizes given out to the three nearest ticket holders.

Mr. and Mrs. John T. Griffin and the children returned from Detroit, Mich., yesterday, at which place Mrs. Griffin and the children have been spending the summer. Like a great many good people they are unable to find a house to rent.

Mrs. C. P. Cooper arrived this week from Jacksonville and is with her parents, Dr. and Mrs. E. S. Crill. Mr. Cooper expects to wind up his law business in Jacksonville this month, and by October first will re-open his law office in Palatka and remain permanently.

Capt. Ed. Lucas returned late last week from a visit of several weeks to his family in Caledonia, Mo. He reports Mrs. Lucas and the children well, and himself as having a splendid time. Capt. Lucas has nearly recovered his health, and is again a business factor in Palatka.

The home of Mr. and Mrs. L. D. Brubaker at Federal Point, was totally destroyed by fire last Friday night at 9 o'clock. Very little was saved and there was no insurance. The home had but recently been refurbished and renovated and Mr. and Mrs. Brubaker feel their loss very keenly.

Capt. and Mrs. J. E. Lane and the children, and Mrs. Benet, returned last week from their Crescent Beach cottage where all except Capt. Lane have been spending the summer. Yesterday all left for a two weeks trip to north Georgia, to visit Capt. Lane's mother, and himself as having a splendid time. Capt. Lane has nearly recovered his health, and is again a business factor in Palatka.

Mr. and Mrs. Lennie Grooms of Jacksonville spent several days in the city last week visiting relatives. Mr. Grooms is a native of Putnam county and is well known in this city. He is now, and has been for a number of years pressman for the Jacksonville Metropolis. Mr. and Mrs. Grooms have just returned from an outing in Canada.

G. H. Hayes, ticket agent at the Union Station, and who with Mrs. Hayes has been spending the summer in Oklahoma, returned to Palatka last Friday evening. Both Mr. and Mrs. Hayes are now in South Florida where they are to spend a few days with relatives, after which they will return to Palatka and Mr. Hayes will resume charge of the Union Station. His health has been much improved by his stay in the west.

Rev. P. Q. Cason of Appalachicola preached to large congregations in the Baptist church last Sunday, and from comments made by those who heard him it is evident that he made a most favorable impression on the members. The church, however, has as yet done nothing in the way of calling a pastor. Rev. Mr. Rife of Plant City, who is in the city today enroute to his home after an absence in the north, will preach at the Baptist church tonight. It is not thought, however, that he is here as a candidate for the pastorate.

Rev. P. Q. Cason of Appalachicola preached to large congregations in the Baptist church last Sunday, and from comments made by those who heard him it is evident that he made a most favorable impression on the members. The church, however, has as yet done nothing in the way of calling a pastor. Rev. Mr. Rife of Plant City, who is in the city today enroute to his home after an absence in the north, will preach at the Baptist church tonight. It is not thought, however, that he is here as a candidate for the pastorate.

Rev. P. Q. Cason of Appalachicola preached to large congregations in the Baptist church last Sunday, and from comments made by those who heard him it is evident that he made a most favorable impression on the members. The church, however, has as yet done nothing in the way of calling a pastor. Rev. Mr. Rife of Plant City, who is in the city today enroute to his home after an absence in the north, will preach at the Baptist church tonight. It is not thought, however, that he is here as a candidate for the pastorate.

Rev. P. Q. Cason of Appalachicola preached to large congregations in the Baptist church last Sunday, and from comments made by those who heard him it is evident that he made a most favorable impression on the members. The church, however, has as yet done nothing in the way of calling a pastor. Rev. Mr. Rife of Plant City, who is in the city today enroute to his home after an absence in the north, will preach at the Baptist church tonight. It is not thought, however, that he is here as a candidate for the pastorate.

Rev. P. Q. Cason of Appalachicola preached to large congregations in the Baptist church last Sunday, and from comments made by those who heard him it is evident that he made a most favorable impression on the members. The church, however, has as yet done nothing in the way of calling a pastor. Rev. Mr. Rife of Plant City, who is in the city today enroute to his home after an absence in the north, will preach at the Baptist church tonight. It is not thought, however, that he is here as a candidate for the pastorate.

Rev. P. Q. Cason of Appalachicola preached to large congregations in the Baptist church last Sunday, and from comments made by those who heard him it is evident that he made a most favorable impression on the members. The church, however, has as yet done nothing in the way of calling a pastor. Rev. Mr. Rife of Plant City, who is in the city today enroute to his home after an absence in the north, will preach at the Baptist church tonight. It is not thought, however, that he is here as a candidate for the pastorate.

Rev. P. Q. Cason of Appalachicola preached to large congregations in the Baptist church last Sunday, and from comments made by those who heard him it is evident that he made a most favorable impression on the members. The church, however, has as yet done nothing in the way of calling a pastor. Rev. Mr. Rife of Plant City, who is in the city today enroute to his home after an absence in the north, will preach at the Baptist church tonight. It is not thought, however, that he is here as a candidate for the pastorate.

Rev. P. Q. Cason of Appalachicola preached to large congregations in the Baptist church last Sunday, and from comments made by those who heard him it is evident that he made a most favorable impression on the members. The church, however, has as yet done nothing in the way of calling a pastor. Rev. Mr. Rife of Plant City, who is in the city today enroute to his home after an absence in the north, will preach at the Baptist church tonight. It is not thought, however, that he is here as a candidate for the pastorate.

Rev. P. Q. Cason of Appalachicola preached to large congregations in the Baptist church last Sunday, and from comments made by those who heard him it is evident that he made a most favorable impression on the members. The church, however, has as yet done nothing in the way of calling a pastor. Rev. Mr. Rife of Plant City, who is in the city today enroute to his home after an absence in the north, will preach at the Baptist church tonight. It is not thought, however, that he is here as a candidate for the pastorate.

Rev. P. Q. Cason of Appalachicola preached to large congregations in the Baptist church last Sunday, and from comments made by those who heard him it is evident that he made a most favorable impression on the members. The church, however, has as yet done nothing in the way of calling a pastor. Rev. Mr. Rife of Plant City, who is in the city today enroute to his home after an absence in the north, will preach at the Baptist church tonight. It is not thought, however, that he is here as a candidate for the pastorate.

Rev. P. Q. Cason of Appalachicola preached to large congregations in the Baptist church last Sunday, and from comments made by those who heard him it is evident that he made a most favorable impression on the members. The church, however, has as yet done nothing in the way of calling a pastor. Rev. Mr. Rife of Plant City, who is in the city today enroute to his home after an absence in the north, will preach at the Baptist church tonight. It is not thought, however, that he is here as a candidate for the pastorate.

Rev. P. Q. Cason of Appalachicola preached to large congregations in the Baptist church last Sunday, and from comments made by those who heard him it is evident that he made a most favorable impression on the members. The church, however, has as yet done nothing in the way of calling a pastor. Rev. Mr. Rife of Plant City, who is in the city today enroute to his home after an absence in the north, will preach at the Baptist church tonight. It is not thought, however, that he is here as a candidate for the pastorate.

Rev. P. Q. Cason of Appalachicola preached to large congregations in the Baptist church last Sunday, and from comments made by those who heard him it is evident that he made a most favorable impression on the members. The church, however, has as yet done nothing in the way of calling a pastor. Rev. Mr. Rife of Plant City, who is in the city today enroute to his home after an absence in the north, will preach at the Baptist church tonight. It is not thought, however, that he is here as a candidate for the pastorate.

Rev. P. Q. Cason of Appalachicola preached to large congregations in the Baptist church last Sunday, and from comments made by those who heard him it is evident that he made a most favorable impression on the members. The church, however, has as yet done nothing in the way of calling a pastor. Rev. Mr. Rife of Plant City, who is in the city today enroute to his home after an absence in the north, will preach at the Baptist church tonight. It is not thought, however, that he is here as a candidate for the pastorate.

Rev. P. Q. Cason of Appalachicola preached to large congregations in the Baptist church last Sunday, and from comments made by those who heard him it is evident that he made a most favorable impression on the members. The church, however, has as yet done nothing in the way of calling a pastor. Rev. Mr. Rife of Plant City, who is in the city today enroute to his home after an absence in the north, will preach at the Baptist church tonight. It is not thought, however, that he is here as a candidate for the pastorate.

Rev. P. Q. Cason of Appalachicola preached to large congregations in the Baptist church last Sunday, and from comments made by those who heard him it is evident that he made a most favorable impression on the members. The church, however, has as yet done nothing in the way of calling a pastor. Rev. Mr. Rife of Plant City, who is in the city today enroute to his home after an absence in the north, will preach at the Baptist church tonight. It is not thought, however, that he is here as a candidate for the pastorate.

Rev. P. Q. Cason of Appalachicola preached to large congregations in the Baptist church last Sunday, and from comments made by those who heard him it is evident that he made a most favorable impression on the members. The church, however, has as yet done nothing in the way of calling a pastor. Rev. Mr. Rife of Plant City, who is in the city today enroute to his home after an absence in the north, will preach at the Baptist church tonight. It is not thought, however, that he is here as a candidate for the pastorate.

Rev. P. Q. Cason of Appalachicola preached to large congregations in the Baptist church last Sunday, and from comments made by those who heard him it is evident that he made a most favorable impression on the members. The church, however, has as yet done nothing in the way of calling a pastor. Rev. Mr. Rife of Plant City, who is in the city today enroute to his home after an absence in the north, will preach at the Baptist church tonight. It is not thought, however, that he is here as a candidate for the pastorate.

Rev. P. Q. Cason of Appalachicola preached to large congregations in the Baptist church last Sunday, and from comments made by those who heard him it is evident that he made a most favorable impression on the members. The church, however, has as yet done nothing in the way of calling a pastor. Rev. Mr. Rife of Plant City, who is in the city today enroute to his home after an absence in the north, will preach at the Baptist church tonight. It is not thought, however, that he is here as a candidate for the pastorate.

Rev. P. Q. Cason of Appalachicola preached to large congregations in the Baptist church last Sunday, and from comments made by those who heard him it is evident that he made a most favorable impression on the members. The church, however, has as yet done nothing in the way of calling a pastor. Rev. Mr. Rife of Plant City, who is in the city today enroute to his home after an absence in the north, will preach at the Baptist church tonight. It is not thought, however, that he is here as a candidate for the pastorate.

Rev. P. Q. Cason of Appalachicola preached to large congregations in the Baptist church last Sunday, and from comments made by those who heard him it is evident that he made a most favorable impression on the members. The church, however, has as yet done nothing in the way of calling a pastor. Rev. Mr. Rife of Plant City, who is in the city today enroute to his home after an absence in the north, will preach at the Baptist church tonight. It is not thought, however, that he is here as a candidate for the pastorate.

Rev. P. Q. Cason of Appalachicola preached to large congregations in the Baptist church last Sunday, and from comments made by those who heard him it is evident that he made a most favorable impression on the members. The church, however, has as yet done nothing in the way of calling a pastor. Rev. Mr. Rife of Plant City, who is in the city today enroute to his home after an absence in the north, will preach at the Baptist church tonight. It is not thought, however, that he is here as a candidate for the pastorate.

Rev. P. Q. Cason of Appalachicola preached to large congregations in the Baptist church last Sunday, and from comments made by those who heard him it is evident that he made a most favorable impression on the members. The church, however, has as yet done nothing in the way of calling a pastor. Rev. Mr. Rife of Plant City, who is in the city today enroute to his home after an absence in the north, will preach at the Baptist church tonight. It is not thought, however, that he is here as a candidate for the pastorate.

Rev. P. Q. Cason of Appalachicola preached to large congregations in the Baptist church last Sunday, and from comments made by those who heard him it is evident that he made a most favorable impression on the members. The church, however, has as yet done nothing in the way of calling a pastor. Rev. Mr. Rife of Plant City, who is in the city today enroute to his home after an absence in the north, will preach at the Baptist church tonight. It is not thought, however, that he is here as a candidate for the pastorate.

Rev. P. Q. Cason of Appalachicola preached to large congregations in the Baptist church last Sunday, and from comments made by those who heard him it is evident that he made a most favorable impression on the members. The church, however, has as yet done nothing in the way of calling a pastor. Rev. Mr. Rife of Plant City, who is in the city today enroute to his home after an absence in the north, will preach at the Baptist church tonight. It is not thought, however, that he is here as a candidate for the pastorate.

Rev. P. Q. Cason of Appalachicola preached to large congregations in the Baptist church last Sunday, and from comments made by those who heard him it is evident that he made a most favorable impression on the members. The church, however, has as yet done nothing in the way of calling a pastor. Rev. Mr. Rife of Plant City, who is in the city today enroute to his home after an absence in the north, will preach at the Baptist church tonight. It is not thought, however, that he is here as a candidate for the pastorate.

Rev. P. Q. Cason of Appalachicola preached to large congregations in the Baptist church last Sunday, and from comments made by those who heard him it is evident that he made a most favorable impression on the members. The church, however, has as yet done nothing in the way of calling a pastor. Rev. Mr. Rife of Plant City, who is in the city today enroute to his home after an absence in the north, will preach at the Baptist church tonight. It is not thought, however, that he is here as a candidate for the pastorate.

Rev. P. Q. Cason of Appalachicola preached to large congregations in the Baptist church last Sunday, and from comments made by those who heard him it is evident that he made a most favorable impression on the members. The church, however, has as yet done nothing in the way of calling a pastor. Rev. Mr. Rife of Plant City, who is in the city today enroute to his home after an absence in the north, will preach at the Baptist church tonight. It is not thought, however, that he is here as a candidate for the pastorate.

Rev. P. Q. Cason of Appalachicola preached to large congregations in the Baptist church last Sunday, and from comments made by those who heard him it is evident that he made a most favorable impression on the members. The church, however, has as yet done nothing in the way of calling a pastor. Rev. Mr. Rife of Plant City, who is in the city today enroute to his home after an absence in the north, will preach at the Baptist church tonight. It is not thought, however, that he is here as a candidate for the pastorate.

Rev. P. Q. Cason of Appalachicola preached to large congregations in the Baptist church last Sunday, and from comments made by those who heard him it is evident that he made a most favorable impression on the members. The church, however, has as yet done nothing in the way of calling a pastor. Rev. Mr. Rife of Plant City, who is in the city today enroute to his home after an absence in the north, will preach at the Baptist church tonight. It is not thought, however, that he is here as a candidate for the pastorate.

Rev. P. Q. Cason of Appalachicola preached to large congregations in the Baptist church last Sunday, and from comments made by those who heard him it is evident that he made a most favorable impression on the members. The church, however, has as yet done nothing in the way of calling a pastor. Rev. Mr. Rife of Plant City, who is in the city today enroute to his home after an absence in the north, will preach at the Baptist church tonight. It is not thought, however, that he is here as a candidate for the pastorate.

Big Cut in High-Grade Summer Clothing For Men and Boys.

Through balance of July and August we are going to sell all our light colored and fancy LIGHT WEIGHT SUITS at

One-Third Off

The Summer is only half over, and if you need a suit here's your opportunity.

During this sale all Straw Hats go at Half Price and all odds and ends of low quarter Shoes at

One-Quarter Off

Fine line of light weight Pants also at ONE-QUARTER OFF.

These prices are for Cash only.

No Such Bargains were Ever Before Offered in Palatka.

M. S. Brown, Clothier and Furnisher.

Death of Mrs. Stumpe.

Mrs. Virginia Stumpe, wife of A. W. Stumpe died at midnight last Friday after an illness of two weeks. The funeral, conducted by Rev. H. Duffell of the Methodist church, was held at the residence in Palatka Heights Saturday afternoon at 3 o'clock, and was attended by a large gathering of sorrowing friends. The interment was in Oak Hill cemetery.

Besides her bereaved husband, Mrs. Stumpe is survived by one daughter, Mrs. W. H. Holloway of Baywood, and N. A. Stumpe, the well-known post office attaché of this city.

Mrs. Stumpe was in her 64th year and had resided in Palatka since 1882. She was a lady of noble Christian character and greatly loved by her neighbors and friends. The sympathy of the people of Palatka is with the bereaved family.

WANTED—To buy 3,000 acres, or more, of Florida land for colonization. The Great Seal of the State of Florida, in the sixty-second Congress of the United States.

FOR RENT—House corner 5th and Olive, newly papered, painted and thoroughly repaired. Apply at the house. 7-22-11

Notice of Election.

To the Sheriff of Putnam County, of the State of Florida:

BE IT KNOWN, That I, H. CLAY CRAWFORD, Secretary of State of the State of Florida, do hereby give notice that a GENERAL ELECTION will be held in Putnam County, State of Florida, on Tuesday next succeeding the first Monday of November, A. D. 1910, the said Tuesday being the EIGHTH DAY OF NOVEMBER, For Representative from the Second Congressional District of Florida, in the sixty-second Congress of the United States.

For Two Justices of the Supreme Court of the State of Florida.

"State Senator from the Twenty-sixth Senatorial District of Florida.

"Two Members of the House of Representatives of the State of Florida.

"Two Railroad Commissioners of the State of Florida.

"County Assessor of Taxes.

"Tax Collector.

"County Treasurer.

"Five County Commissioners.

"Three Members of the County Board of Public Instruction.

"Justices of the Peace in and for the following Justice Districts, viz:

No. 1, 2, 3, 4, 5, 6, 7, 8, 9, 10, 11, 12, 13, 14, 15, 16, 17, 18, 19, 20, 21, 22, 23, 24, 25, 26, 27, 28, 29, 30.

For Constable in and for the following Justice Districts, viz:

No. 1, 2, 3, 4, 5, 6, 7, 8, 9, 10, 11, 12, 13, 14, 15, 16, 17, 18, 19, 20, 21, 22, 23, 24, 25, 26, 27, 28, 29, 30.

In Testimony Whereof, I have hereunto set my hand and affixed the Great Seal of the State of Florida, at Tallahassee, the Capital, this twenty-ninth day of August, A. D. 1910.

H. CLAY CRAWFORD, Secretary of State.